DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 15-22 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 3.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1,3, and 13 are objected to because of the following informalities: In line 4 of claim 1, ---component--- should be inserted after scaffold; in line 7 of claim ---foam tissue---should be inserted before scaffold; and in line 1 of each of claims 3 and 13 ---tissue--- should be inserted before scaffold. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Specifically, claim 7 recites "the bioabsorbable polymer" which is unclear whether reference is made to the polymer of claim 4 (foam tissue scaffold component) or of claim 5 (fixation component).

Claims 8-10 are rejected for being dependent upon a rejected base claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-5, 7-11, 13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gresser et al. US 2001/0008980.

Art Unit: 3738

Gresser et al. discloses in Figures 4a-4b and paragraphs 8-10,33,38,47, and 71 a resorbable tissue scaffold implant comprising a foam tissue scaffold component (main body of Fig 4a) and a partially encapsulated fixation component comprising threads 41 serving as anchors. Pores or through holes (43-46) fulfill the open-cell pore structure. Hydroxyapatite is described in paragraph 47 as a reinforcement component.

8. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Melican et al. US 2002/0120348.

Melican et al. discloses in Figures 1-5 and paragraphs 10-12,22-31,36,41-42,46-51, and 59-63 multiple embodiments of a resorbable tissue scaffold implant comprising an open cell porous foam tissue scaffold component 12, a partially encapsulated fixation component, and reinforcement components. Reinforcement may be accomplished by reinforcement mesh(s) 14, reinforcement solids in the foam (paragraphs 46-51), and/or by a fibrous layer (paragraphs 59-63). The fixation component as claimed, may be the fibrous layer and/or reinforcement mesh(s) 14. The fibrous layer may include anchors such as non-absorbable staples.

9. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sherwood et al. US PN 6,454,811.

Sherwood et al. discloses in figure 2 and lines 7-15 of col. 6, lines 11-54 of col. 7, lines 26 of col. 8 thru line 34 of col. 9, lines 4-8 of col. 10, and lines 13-21 of col. 15 a resorbable tissue scaffold implant comprising a foam tissue scaffold component

Art Unit: 3738

(cartilage layers) and a partially encapsulated fixation component (bone layers) for anchoring in bone. Both layers are porous and the device may be made from non-absorbable components (lines 10-13 of col. 7). Hydroxyapatite is described in lines 4-8 of col. 10 as a reinforcement component.
